CENTER FOR MAINE CRAFT - WEST GARDINER, MAINE

Located in the West Gardiner Service Plaza, the Center for Maine Craft is a retail gallery and exhibition space representing more than 300 Maine Crafts Association (MCA) members. Established in 2008, the gallery showcases Maine-made work across a wide range of media and serves as a resource for cultural tourism, member engagement, and programming managed by Shop Maine Craft and Maine Crafts Association.

Complementary Jury Overview

The Complementary Jury reviews Maine-made specialty products, including books, calendars, candles, prints, photography, cards, personal care items, food products, and pet products. Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis by gallery management. The process is open to MCA members and non-members who live and work in Maine at least seasonally.

Jury Fees

- Non-members: $25
- MCA Basic Members: $15
- Individuals under MCA Institutional Memberships: $15
- MCA Professional, Emerging, or Guild Members: No fee

Applicants receive a jury decision by email within 30 days of submission. During peak summer months, response times may be extended. Acceptance does not guarantee an immediate order. If gallery space is unavailable, approved applicants may be added to an ordering pool for future consideration.

Membership Requirements

Upon receiving a first order, vendors must maintain an active MCA Basic membership. Prints and photography require a Professional-level membership. Memberships renew annually on December 31.

Sales Terms

Most work is accepted on a 50/50 consignment basis, with limited wholesale opportunities.

Eligibility and Requirements

The Center for Maine Craft represents professional Maine-based makers and small businesses capable of producing high-quality work consistently and fulfilling orders reliably. All submissions must be original work made by the applicant or under their direct supervision. Submissions on behalf of others are not accepted. Applicants must agree to the terms of the Shop Maine Craft Consignment Agreement.

The Maine Crafts Association supports Maine's maker community through retail opportunities, education, marketing, networking, and business resources. Learn more at mainecrafts.org and shopmainecraft.com.
